

The 2nd Mentor Forum AY2019-2020

キャリアパスを考える

What lessons did you learn from your career path/change?

If you want to get huge success, take a risk!
Manage your risk.
Enjoy your career.

Tetsu Nakajima
(15th Rock Ventures)
(Engineering, Hokkaido Univ.)

Prepare for the day when your chance will come.
Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice.

Peter Y. Shane
(Hokkaido Univ. Hospital)
(Univ. of Texas Medical School)

Crossover collaborations among multidomain experts create new effective approaches on public issues.

Take action immediately.
Observe a person's behavior.

Naoki Yamashita
(Ministry of Finance)
(Public Policy, Hokkaido Univ.)

Global Leaders from Hokkaido

Wataru Mishima
(Japan Meteorological Agency)
(Science, Hokkaido Univ.)

Actually, it is possible to love what you do.
Understand and invest in your own "human capital".

Jay Tanaka, PhD
(Hokkaido Univ.)
(M.B.A, Univ. of Hawaii)

Every change is an opportunity for GROWTH.
The beginning of anything worthwhile is HARD.

Eric Ofosu-Twum, PhD
(Hitachi, Ltd.)
(Chemical Science and Engineering, Hokkaido Univ.)
